

2,417 Shirts Were Sold Yesterday in this Sensational Sale of Men's Shirts, at...

$1.66
4 FOR $6.50

Over 3,000 Shirts Remain—
Everyone Worth $2.50 or $3.00

Although we sold more Shirts yesterday than in any two days of any previous Shirt Sale, we still have about 3,000 on hand, and these will be offered tomorrow at the same sensational price of $1.66. We advise that you come early, as the assortments in some sizes are beginning to run low. It is hardly necessary for us to emphasize the wonderful values involved in this sale. The two thousand men who attended yesterday can tell you that there is nothing in Richmond that can compare with them. They are Shirts that would cost you $2.50 or $3.00 anywhere in the country, and even greater values than the Shirts offered in our 66c Shirt Sale, way back in 1912 when prices were normal. Since that time the cost of materials, tailoring and other essentials necessary to Shirt making have advanced 280 per cent. The sale price has advanced only 150%, and even at that the materials of these Shirts are of a far better quality and the workmanship of a much higher standard than ever before. Take this "last chance" offered to you tomorrow and come early. In all probability another day will find us out of the very size you want.

Materials:

Fine quality, fast color Percales, Printed Madaras, Hawthorn Shirtings, Copley Shirtings, Gardia Striped Shirtings, Norwood and Montana Shirtings, in an extensive variety of the newest spring patterns and colors. Practically an unlimited assortment to select from.

Tailoring:

These Shirts were not made up special for this sale. They are every one perfect, cut full and correctly shaped for each particular size. The snug-fitting collar bands, the interlined reversible cuffs, and the pearl buttons are significant of $2.50 and $3.00 articles.

Sizes From 14 to 17 in the Assortment
